RULING ON ENTITLEMENT¹

On May 8, 2020, John McFarland filed a petition for compensation under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program, 42 U.S.C. §300aa-10, *et seq.*² (the “Vaccine Act”). Petitioner alleges that he suffered a shoulder injury related to vaccine administration (SIRVA) as a result of an influenza (“flu”) vaccine received on October 2, 2018. Petition at ¶¶ 2, 19. The case was assigned to the Special Processing Unit of the Office of Special Masters.

On August 24, 2021, Respondent filed his Rule 4(c) report in which he concedes that Petitioner is entitled to compensation in this case. Respondent’s Rule 4(c) Report at 1. Specifically, it is Respondent’s position that Petitioner had no history of pain, inflammation, or dysfunction in his left shoulder; Petitioner’s pain and reduced range of motion occurred within 48 hours of receipt of an intramuscular vaccination; Petitioner's symptoms were limited to the shoulder in which the vaccine was administered; and no other condition or abnormality has been identified to explain his symptoms. Id. at 4.

In view of Respondent's position and the evidence of record, I find that Petitioner is entitled to compensation.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
